

CALL FOR ERAMUS + TRAINEES

Trainee for the Communication Design's Laboratory - Erasmus+ Internship

The Faculdade de Belas-Artes is looking for an Erasmus intern to support the Communication Design's Laboratory. The candidate should have:

- fluency in English;
- a degree in Graphic Design, Communication Design or related areas; and
- experience in the areas of communication design, communication design technologies (desktop publishing and web) and production technologies (print and digital media).

The trainee will be expected to carry out tasks in the Communication Design Laboratory involving the visual recording, digitisation and documentation of the department's output, with a view to establishing auxiliary means and platforms for building up a collection of academic output in Communication Design.

This internship is directed to students who are interested in an Erasmus+ traineeship, with their home university Erasmus+ funding. Weekly working hours will be about 20, with a flexible schedule. The internship should have the duration from two to six months, between February and July.

If you are interested in this traineeship, please send your CV and portfolio to erasmus@belasartes.ulisboa.pt.
